

Product Information:

The Hex bolts, concrete cavity depth, and no higher cleanliness requirements, easy to install and inexpensive. Jacking by selecting the appropriate thickness of the buried depth, with the increase of buried depth, tension increased after the products are reliable and expandable functionality. Body material: stainless steel, carbon steel and other metal materials. Also known as through bolts, expansion bolts and expansion anchors, which is designed for consistent performance in concrete.

Widely used in securing the through objects' fastening, such as equipment, channel steel, guide rail, holder, steel structure, escalator, handrail and curtain wall etc. Every wedge anchor can be suitable for the standard anchorage depth, and also fit for shallow mining depth, to provide supreme flexibility for installation. Moreover the long thread offering the spacing installation, and can be flexibly adjustable to easy the installation.

Widely used in securing the through objects' fastening, such as equipment, channel steel, guide rail, holder, steel structure, escalator, handrail and curtain wall etc. Every wedge anchor can be suitable for the standard anchorage depth, and also fit for shallow mining depth, to provide supreme flexibility for installation. Moreover the long thread offering the spacing installation, and can be flexibly adjustable to easy the installation.

ASTM A307 and Hot Dip Galvanized ASTM 153. Bolts are Coarse Threaded to a class 2 Fit.

Hex Nuts and washers used on these bolts should be ordered separately.

Dia	Length(mm)
M12	50
M16	35
M16	100
M16	120
M16	300
M20	50
M20	100
M20	250
M20	300
M20	350